PEAK

HIGH SCHOOL
VIRGINIA

... doing special assignments in the library

Montevideo will always be REMEMBERED ...

... holding a female gossip session in the cafeteria

... taking notes
and studying faithfully to make the grade

... working, playing, and learning together ...

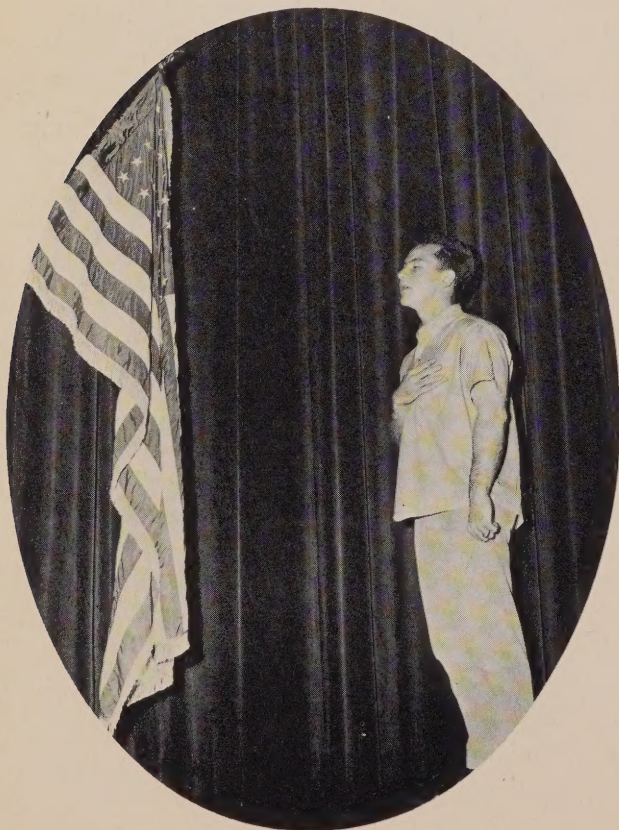

... attending parties and dances

... learning to work
and co-operate well
with each other

... and as the place where we found inspiration,

... being proud and thankful
for the freedom our forefathers won for us

. . . the knowledge
and inspiration that we receive from our teachers

guidance and a foundation for a better way of life.

. . . the important advice and guidance that we receive from our Counselors.

DEDICATION

REMEMBER . . .

Because

. . . . you have been a friend and companion
to both students and faculty

. . . . you have helped us with special projects and committee work

. . . . you have shared with us your warm
smile and your helping hand

. . . . you have fostered pride and respect
in our school

. . . . you have inspired and encouraged us
at all times

. . . . you are Remembered in our hearts at Montevideo High School,
we dedicate the 1963 Peak to you . . .
Mrs. Audrey Hammer.

ADMINISTRATION

REMEMBER . . .

Their days were long ones . . . we saw them contributing to Montevideo High in a variety of ways . . . sometimes wet and cold from an early bus duty, or perhaps loyally supporting a faculty basketball game but always sharing with us their knowledge and interests . . . despite our innocent youth, we realized that book reports, homework, and those inevitable labs had a purpose . . . while we enjoyed an occasional holiday, they attended faculty meetings, combining efforts toward a better Montevideo High . . . extra help after 3:05 assured us of their sincere interests . . . yes, we'll Remember our faculty for what they really are—understanding individuals who gave their time and talents toward our future . . . not only were they our instructors but also our friends with whom we shared experiences, confidences, and fun.

SENIOR CLASS

REMEMBER . . .

We thought that we were going to loaf this year—suddenly we found ourselves surrounded by too many “Senior musts” . . . under the faithful leadership of our President, Jimmy Melton; Vice - President, Dwight Miller; Secretary, Vicky Lawson; Treasurer, Shirley Fulk; Reporter, Julia Meyerhoffer; and our Sponsors, Mrs. Roller and Mr. Seaton we managed to complete our Senior responsibilities . . . there was the realization that we’ll be guests at the next Homecoming . . . we felt a special unity and pride when we were given special privileges at good ole M.H.S. . . . the organized chaos of ordering caps and gowns and announcements made graduation seem that much closer . . . the play with anxious moments was our last class project . . . quite suddenly we found ourselves in the midst of graduation . . . maroon and white tassels waved before our misty eyes as we drew nearer diplomas and congratulations . . . with a common love for Montevideo High and a wealth of precious memories, we go our separate ways . . . “We’ve crossed the river; the ocean lies beyond.”

REMEMBER . . .

We resolved to make these last two years even better—but the new title of “upper-classmen” not only added fun but also new responsibilities . . . proving theorems that we forgot to study and cramming for United States history reminded us that we didn’t know everything . . . the knees and voices that shook at play tryouts were strong and confident on the opening night of our Junior play. With the help of President, John Wilson; Vice-President, Nelson Conger; Secretary, Ruth Ann Warble; Treasurer, Linda Albrite; Reporter, Jimmy Layman; and our Sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Cavanaugh we began making plans for the prom . . . concentrated effort raised money while prom committees made elaborate spending plans . . . head-over-heels in paint, crepe paper and “top-secret” sessions in the gym, we worked hard to give our Seniors a memorable prom . . . and finally there came the time for ordering the rings we would wear when we would become “seniors.”

REMEMBER . . .

We reached that in-between stage—no longer meager freshmen—not yet proud upper classmen . . . President, Tim Evans; Vice-President, Larry Saufley; Secretary, Eva Bowman; Treasurer, Linda Wilberger; Reporter, Sandra Mundy; and Sponsors, Mrs. Cobbs and Mr. Pence were selected as the leaders of our Sophomore class . . . yet there was an air of confidence as we decorated for our Sophomore party . . . all of a sudden we held the name “Sophomore” to mean capability and willingness to learn . . . as we aimed high for the varsity squads, we also discovered Silas Marner and Julius Caesar, dissected frogs and wondered if infinitives really could be so important to life . . . time passed rapidly, and mingled with the sudden realization of the end of our Sophomore year was a certain sadness and pride.

REMEMBER . . .

The label "Freshman" gave us new strengths and hopes . . . we elected the following officers and sponsors to steer us through our second year of high school: President, Emily Long; Vice-President, Dempsey Orndorff; Secretary, Kathy Morris; Treasurer, Mark Saufley; Reporter, Jean Long; and Sponsors Mrs. Polites and Mr. Don Glick . . . we stood in awe wondering just which way to turn . . . a new determination grew with us as we worked hard to earn quality credits . . . the new excitement that came from being a part of the team and feeling needed make this Freshman year a rare and memorable one . . . we spent two weeks taking SCAT tests supposedly telling us just how intelligent we are . . . we tackled and conquered new subjects such as Latin and Algebra I . . . a spirit of cooperation began to grow in our proud Freshman class as we planned for our Freshman party . . . The Seniors, always calm and cool and willing to help us, made us fill with dreams of waiting happiness.

REMEMBER . . .

We felt so small—a sharp contrast to the sudden largeness of Montevideo High School—the crowded and noisy halls replaced our security of the elementary school . . . even the little mishaps of forgetting one's locker combination and not getting to class on time loomed large before us . . . guidance came to us through the helpful advice of teachers and upperclassmen . . . President, Brank Edwards; Vice-President, Danny Trobaugh; Secretary, Penny Bowman; Treasurer, Steve Liskey; Reporter, Connie Mitchell; and our Sponsors Mrs. Nancy Voorhees and Mr. Williams helped us start our climb towards higher goals . . . we had fun at the Eighth Grade party and other various social activities . . . months passed and suddenly we no longer felt small but proud and happy as we walked into the auditorium for the final assemblé of the year with enthusiasm.

Remember . . .

Extra-curricular interests added hours, points and responsibilities to our schedules . . . dependable leaders rewarded our votes and we found ourselves eager to be followers . . . meetings, practices, rehearsals, and deadlines provided anxious moments but also the satisfying feeling that came with a sense of accomplishment . . . these “extras” asked for our time and co-operation and got them because our organizations were characterized by interest and enthusiasm . . . each peck at the typewriter, each speech by a president, and each impressive initiation was part of our accomplished interests . . . pep rallies, programs, meetings, time, and talents — these make Montevideo High School mean more to us than books, homework, and term papers . . . we worked happily and saw our progress, feeling grateful for having been a part of it.

ATHLETICS

REMEMBER . . .

Montevideo High's 1962-63 athletic program undoubtedly had its widest selection of inter-scholastic and intramural sports activities in recent years . . . From that afternoon in August when the boys out for football began working the kinks out, to the final season of baseball . . . Not only was the emphasis placed on the boy's sports, but girls' athletics were given a boost by the students morale and support at the games . . . Our athletic department's quest of more and better athletics, both in competition and in recreation, made strides toward an increase of the physical, social and spiritual rewards that a sound athletic program can give to its participating members and to the school.

REMEMBER . . .

Our special moments which kept us happy . . . We will always remember our Homecoming Game, our mixture of laughter and tears, the moments of anticipation, and the final climax as we cheered the weary, but happy, mighty maroons off the field . . . A near perfect day drew to an end as the delighted students of Montevideo filed happily into the gymnasium where the traditional homecoming dance took place . . . Near the beginning of this festive social, the homecoming court was announced . . . Then entered Miss Judy Miller, the reigning Queen, attended by her court . . . The rest of the evening was enjoyed by all . . . We will never forget the senior superlatives, those who stood forth as outstanding in our class . . . We always hold in memory the pride we experienced in our selection of delegates to Girls' and Boys' State . . . The annual senior play, filled with hilarity and enjoyment, will never escape our memories.

HER MAJESTY, THE QUEEN . . .

MISS JUDY KAY MILLER, HOMECOMING QUEEN

Montevideo High School observed its 8th annual homecoming on October 19 and 20. The two-day festivities were begun with the victory of the Maroons over Stonewall Jackson, 20-0. Highlighting the game was the crowning of the queen at half-time. Homecoming queen for '62 was Miss Judy K. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller of Grottoes. Judy, active in both church and school, is president of the SCA, a member of the National Honor Society, FHA, Pep Club and Features Editor of the PEAK.

A D V E R T I S E M E N T S

We express our deep appreciation to the many businessmen of the community who have pledged their support to our school through advertisements in our year book, The Peak.

Your support has not gone unrecognized. Without it we could do nothing.

Again we thank you for your cooperation with the youth of the community.
